23st Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.” It’s a modern misconception to think of Jesus as the ultimate nice guy who only said things that everybody loved to hear. Of course Jesus is the perfect model of charity and compassion, but he also gave some very challenging teachings. Today’s Gospel is a case in point. Not many people are thrilled by Christ’s lesson today that insists God MUST be first in our lives. Few are those who love to hear this instruction to renounce our beloved things as well as our beloved relationships. But Jesus does not mince words. We are to “hate” our “father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters,” and even our own life.

It’s important to understand that the use of the word “hate” here does not mean to despise anyone or treat them unkindly. It means rather to prefer something--or Someone--else, namely, God, to these important relationships. Taken in the context of the Gospel as a whole it is clear that Jesus is not advocating cruelty or animosity. On the contrary, just a few weeks ago we heard from Luke 10:27 as Jesus instructed us to love our neighbors as ourselves. However, in putting God first, inevitably something else must take second place. It is a kind of hatred of family, self, and “stuff” when we don’t allow these things to become mini-gods in our lives. Instead, we keep God as God.

What does this mean for us? It means not allowing a family member to prevent us from practicing our faith to the fullest, and also not putting our trust in gadgets and gizmos. It means, instead, putting all our trust in God, whatever the cost may be.

St. Frederic's 4th Annual Fall Festival & Pumpkin Patch -- 6 weeks away!!

Saturday, October 8th from 9:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Sunday, October 9th from 10:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

MEETING – There will be a very special meeting for ALL volunteers at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, September 7th. If you have already signed up to help with the festival or if you want to find out more information, please be at this meeting! We will meet in Buccini Hall.

Mat Penziol will be leading a quick class on the City requirements for handling food. It is very important that you attend (even though some of you may already work in food places) so that everyone knows what to expect with your food booth.

Eddie Martinez will be discussing the details of the beer garden which is new this year to the festival.

We will also discuss the games. You will learn what they are, how they are played, and what is needed. It will give you the opportunity to sign up to help.

VOLUNTEER – Please volunteer to help with the festival. We need help to set up, tear down, or games.

DONATIONS – If you would like to make a donation to the festival, Hallie Pumkin is available at each mass or for larger monetary donations, you can drop off or mail it to the parish office and get a tax donation receipt. Auction items can also be dropped off at the office or if you need, we can make arrangements to pick up your item.

The committee cannot do this alone. Now is the time to give back to your parish. To make this fundraiser a success, we need your help! To help with the festival, call the office 503-397-0148 or call Carmen McMahan 503-397-2791 or send an email to carmen@oregonhill.com.
