Divorce, Separation or death?

Every marriage ends, whether from death, separation or divorce, and whatever the cause, it is one of life's most traumatic experiences. No one has to suffer alone, and although life may never be the same, it can be good again. Beginning Experience can help, just give us one weekend. For more information, call Joanne at 503-476-4796.

A Beginning Experience Weekend is designed to be a time of closure on the past and renewed hope for the future. The next weekend will be held in Milwaukie near LaSalle High School, February 23-25, 2018.

Whatever you eat, then, or drink, and whatever else you do, do it all, for the glory of God. (1 Corinthians 10:31)

In our lives we need to check the priorities. God has to come first before everything else. Our possessions, our money should not come before God. Everything we do, should be for the glory of God our Creator.

Fr. Nicolaus Marandu
(Pastor)

February 11, 2018—6th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Often one of our human weaknesses has to do with us believing or thinking we know better than God in relation to what we do and what we do in relation to others. Of course, part of that has to do with our failure to pray and consult the Lord, or even more to make no effort to understand what God may be telling us.

In today's Gospel Reading from St. Mark, we hear about Jesus curing a leper. In His instructions to the cured man, He says, "See that you tell no one anything," Of course, the man pays no attention to this instruction from the Lord. Instead, "The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter."

Surely the man meant well; in fact, he probably thought he was helping Jesus, but the reality as stated in the Gospel is that his disobedience hindered the ministry of Jesus, "so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly." We need to obey the Lord, and we should never think we have a better plan than He does.

Even the eminent scientist Albert Einstein recognized how important Jesus' teachings are. Einstein said, "As a child I received instruction both in the Bible and in the Talmud. I am a Jew, but I am enthralled by the luminous figure of the Nazarene — no one can read the Gospels without feeling the actual presence of Jesus. His personality pulsates in every word. No myth is filled with such life."

Lent

Lent starts this week! Plan on doing something special for Lent. The Archdiocese of Portland has a great website (<http://oregonlent.org>) with some great videos and a link to some great Lenten studies from FORMED.org. If you are not signed up for FORMED.org, not is the time to do it. Go to <http://stfredericchurch.formed.org> to register. A code is no longer needed to register. You can also go to <http://stfredericchurch.org> and click on the link right from the front page of our website. Registering with FORMED is easier than ever. Why not get off social media or watching TV and spend the time watching great Catholic content!

Fasting and Abstinence

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.

The norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. Liquids are allowed at any time, but no solid food should be consumed between meals.

The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding from age 14 onwards. Abstinence laws consider that meat comes only from animals such as chickens, cows, sheep or pigs—all of which live on land. Birds are also considered meat. Abstinence does not include meat juices and liquid foods made from meat. Thus, such foods as chicken broth, soups cooked for flavored with meat, meat gravies or sauces, as well as seasonings or condiments made from animal fat are technically not forbidden. However, moral theologians have traditionally taught that we should abstain from all animal-derived products (except foods such as gelatin, butter, cheese and eggs, which do not have any meat taste). Salt and freshwater species of fish, amphibians, reptiles, (cold-blooded animals) and shellfish are permitted.

There are exclusions for physically or mentally ill including individuals suffering from chronic illness such as diabetes and for pregnant or nursing women. In all cases, common sense should prevail, and ill persons should not further jeopardize their health by fasting.

40 Days for Life!

40 Days for Life is the largest internationally coordinated pro-life mobilization in history, helping people in local communities end the injustice of abortion through prayer and fasting, community outreach, and constant vigil. The Spring campaign runs from Feb. 14th through March 25th from 7 am to 7 pm at The Lovejoy Surgicenter at 933 NW 25th. Sign up to come and pray today at <http://40daysforlife.com/Portland>. Sponsored by the Life, Justice and Peace Office of the Archdiocese of Portland.
