Women's Society

The Women's Society is in need of new or slightly used items for the Christmas Bazaar Surprise Package. It is never too early!

FORMED.org

Have you signed up yet? Why not learn more about our faith this lent? This week's Pick of the Week is a video entitled Is the Holy Spirit the same as The Force? It is only 2 minutes long. Everyone has 2 minutes to watch this video! You can sign up at <http://stfredericchurch.formed.org> to register. A code is no longer necessary.

Garage Sale

St. Frederic is having another garage sale. It is scheduled for April 13 and 14. You can start bringing your garage sale items to the office. This is a very tight schedule between Easter and this garage sale. We are going to need a great deal of help getting things on tables and priced. Please plan on helping us between Easter and April 13! Thank you!

BULLETIN DEADLINE The secretary is out of town. If you have something that needs to be in the bulletin, please email stfred@comcast.net by Sunday night one week prior to the bulletin date.

Second collection next weekend (March 31/April 1 is for the Holy Land

Chocolate Sales

This year my source for Free Trade Chocolate has no specifically Easter items, so I will postpone my next sale until the week following Easter (April 7-8th). If you would like chocolate for Easter please call Maureen Sloan at 503-397-4957.

“Pilate again said to them, ‘Then what shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?’ And they cried out again, ‘Crucify him.’” – MARK 15:12-13

Jesus told us “whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me.” Every day we are presented opportunities to help someone. Every day we have the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others. Pray for the strength and courage to stand up for those in need of our help.

March 25, 2018—Palm Sunday of the Lord’s Passion

In his letter to the Philippians, our Second Reading on this Palm Sunday, St. Paul writes, “...he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.” Everything we hear today and during Holy Week relates to this statement.

For some 2,000 years scholars and theologians have debated what the phrase “emptied himself” means. As is sometimes the case, in the midst of these debates and discussions they lose focus of what is really Paul’s point and teaching perhaps. One of the things Paul might be trying to get us to think about is emptying ourselves to a certain extent. If you have ever been a retreat or been part of a spiritual exercise, you may be encouraged to “empty yourself” so you are prepared to in reality add something.

Jesus gave much up to be the Son of Man. At this point in our Lenten journey, we need to grasp that He gave up His life so that we might have life. That is what should be on our minds as we hear the Passion today and as we continue and complete our own preparation for Christ’s resurrection on Easter.

Have you ever heard someone say about someone else “He (or she) is so full of himself (or herself)?” Jesus was not “full of Himself.” He emptied Himself, and that is something we, too, must strive to do to be His disciple.

Non-Pledge Donations

We have received $1,200 for friends of parishioners for our Capital Campaign. Thanks to all who have given letters to friends and family!

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is not just for catechumenes but for anyone who wants to learn more about the Catholic faith (including life long parishioners). Join us in the office, Sundays, at 7:00 p.m!
