THE ASCENSION

"They did him homage and then returned to Jerusalem with great joy." Jesus had just left the disciples. In a dramatic and supernatural moment, he had bid them farewell and then "was taken up to heaven." One might think this departure would have left the disciples feeling very melancholy, but apparently it was not so. They were full of joy as they went back to the city where Jesus had told them to stay, "until you are clothed with power from on high."

This, of course, is a reference to the coming of the Holy Spirit that would happen soon enough at Pentecost. But the disciples did not know the details. They only knew that Jesus was promising them the "Advocate" and some amazing power from heaven, and sending them off with a great mission to preach "repentance, for the forgiveness of sins... to all the nations." And this filled them with joy, even while they waited.

What we often need to remind ourselves is that after the Ascension, the disciples were in a very similar position to us. They were no longer in the physical presence of Jesus. They no longer walked with him, watched him, or heard his voice. Now, carrying on the work of the Gospel was up to them. And so too, now it is up to us. The mission of preaching the good news to all the nations is our mission. And, thankfully, the powerful "clothing" from on high is ours as well.

So, like the disciples we have cause for rejoicing. Jesus reigns in heaven. His Spirit has come upon us. And we are entrusted with the most noble and rewarding task of all, to share our faith with others and bring them to experience the joys of belonging to the kingdom of God.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES 2016 ANNUAL CAMPAIGN

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, we are reminded that Pope Francis has called us to renew our commitment to building communities based on love—to come closer to each other through the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. Each year, Catholic Charities partners with tens of thousands of families and individuals across the Archdiocese to help them find success, prosperity, and opportunity. Please come closer to Catholic Charities, and all those we serve, by giving generously to Catholic Charities 2016 Annual Campaign. The campaign launched on April 30th with a special collection on May 14th/15th. To donate online, please go to www.CatholicCharitiesOregon.org or call 503-688-2656.

MARRIED COUPLES

Jesus "raised his hands and blessed them". Jesus prayed for his disciples and us to know and believe the good news of the Gospel! Open your heart and allow God's love to transform all areas of your lives including your marriage. The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends at Our Lady of Peace Retreat Center in Beaverton, Oregon on May 27th-29th or August 26th—27th. For more information call 503-853-2758 or apply on-line at www.rediscoverthepark.org. Additional dates and locations are listed online.

St Frederic Parish, Father Marandu, Pastoral Council and the Strategic Planning Committee are looking for feedback on the Draft Pastoral Plan for St Frederic Church. The plan is intended to be a living, working document created with your original concerns in mind. The next step is for YOU to help us review and revise the plan before it is presented to the Archdiocese.

Beginning on May 14 & 15, parts of the plan will be included in the bulletin. There will be fellow parishioners available after each Mass to listen to your comments and concerns, record them, and take them to heart. The full draft plan will be available to review and assist in guiding your feedback. Please feel free to either comment verbally or in written form.

The topics for the next 4 weeks will be as follows:

| | |
|-----------|---|
| May 14/15 | Liturgy & Spiritual Life |
| May 21/22 | Hispanic Ministry & Faith Formation |
| May 28/29 | Stewardship & Peace & Justice/Defend Life |
| June 4/5 | Parish Property & Community |

Liturgy

The Sacred Liturgy is already established for us in the celebration of the Holy Mass. The liturgy is the “Source and Summit of Christian Life.” It is through our sense of sight, sound, smell and touch that our worship leads to full and conscious participation in Liturgical Celebrations.

- How can we develop formal training for all liturgical ministers to achieve a high quality of involvement in the Sacred Liturgy?
- Who are the lay people who can assist the Sacristan?
- Do we need a Liturgical Committee?
- Do you have any suggestions for the decorations or music aspects of the Liturgy?
- Are mass times sufficient? Would you like to see more Sunday masses, or fewer, where the church is filled up?

Spiritual Life

Spirituality is that loving, connected relationship with Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Holy Spirit that sustains and nourishes the people of God so that we may express, share, and live our faith with each other.

- What is the best way to offer you opportunities to adequately prepare for and celebrate the sacraments of the Church?
- Are you personally interested in retreats, either at St. Frederic or traveling as a parish family?
Are you personally interested in other prayer and worship opportunities?
- What do you believe can be the benefit of faith sharing, and how can it be accomplished? Have you ever been a member of a Small Faith Sharing group, and what was your experience?
- Are there current programs and activities that you love? Are there some that you dislike for any reason?
- If you do not pray the rosary, why is that? If you do pray the rosary, what compels you?
